

ResSoc General Assembly Written Reports

Date of Assembly: February 4, 2024

I. Reports by Executives

a. President's Report

Greetings assembly! Somehow it feels like we've already been back for a whole semester even though this is just our first meeting, there's been so much going on. I've been working on a number of things, though elections has been taking up a majority of my time; you'll get to see some of the efforts of my work in the later discussion/motion section. Moving forward, I will be investigating some issues with dining at Jean Royce Hall, speaking with event services regarding how they work with ResSoc, Speaking with the City of Kingston to discuss transit to and from West Campus, finishing my review of the By-Laws, and assist with the planning of the 10th anniversary event.

b. VPSO's Report

ResSoc Recap, a report I prepared with input from the rest of the executive team that highlights ResSoc's accomplishments over the Fall 2023 semester, has been published and can be found on the home page of the ResSoc website. Please check it out and encourage your students, especially those who have expressed interest in joining ResSoc in future years, to check it out so they can learn more about what we do as an organization from semester to semester. A Winter 2024 edition will be prepared at the end of this semester similarly.

I was able to attend January's RAC meeting as proxy for the HRO, which was a very productive meeting and I was happy to be able to give my ideas to management again.

I've been meeting lots with the President to map out what the rest of the semester looks like for the executive team and figuring out everything we need to finish before the end of the term on the administrative side.

I am currently helping HRO prepare for officer and HP hiring which will be occurring over the next month or so. Stay tuned for dates and applications.

I will be having 1-1s with the hired executives starting this week to touch base and make sure we all stay on track to finish everything we'd like to accomplish before the end of the year.

One of my big focuses for the remainder of the term is to organize and inventory our Victoria Hall storage room as much as possible, with the help of the Sustainability, Finance, and Hiring and Elections committees.

c. VPRO's Report

I have been going over event logistics for the first round of HP events this term and working with Queens Event Services to create a new plan for when HPs want to book non-residence rooms.

l. Morris Report

So far this semester I have met with my house council twice and they had good feedback to share about the new Lenny. They stated that students like Lenny and are big fans of the omelet station. I have currently working on planning a super bowl watch party event with HPs Ryan, James, and Marco. The next thing on my radar is to plan an event for around the end of February that my house council would like to see happen.

m. Victoria Report

Since our last meeting, I successfully hosted my first house council for the second semester, which was especially lively with anticipation for the new dining hall, the continuation of the 21 weekly meals plan, and election season.

My current focus is on preparing for and promoting the Candy Buffet Party, my first event of the semester. This requires a multifaceted approach that includes logistical planning, marketing efforts, and engaging with potential attendees to generate interest and ensure a successful turnout.

Moving forward, I plan to resume regular House Council meetings, establishing a consistent forum for discussion and decision-making. Furthermore, I am committed to successfully executing the upcoming Candy Buffet Party. My goal is to create a welcoming and enjoyable environment while also keeping a close eye on safety and risk reduction to ensure a memorable experience for all participants.

n. Waldron Report

1. I held my first event (board game, cheesecake, hot chocolate). It was a huge success, shoutout to Nathan for helping to arrange the hot chocolate from hospitality, students really enjoyed it! I had my first house council meeting of the semester. I submitted forms for my second and third events for approval. Part of the elections team.

2. Currently finalizing logistics of second event, ongoing communication with my house council.

3. Looking forward to my second event.

o. Watts Report

Held one successful tote bag painting night at Watts in collaboration with a painting wellness club called Canvas 'n Care. Currently planning another collaboration event for February. Will plan final event for March soon.
